ANNOUNCEMENTS

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL- Our new session for adults will begin on April 7th and run for 8 weeks. Below is a description of the classes being offered on Sunday mornings from 8:45-9:45. Please sign up today in the foyer so we can have materials for you.

- The Cost of Control -Facilitator: Matt Glewen
This study will examine our desperate need for control, what it costs us in terms of our relationships with each other and with God, and what to do when our illusion of being in control is shattered. This class will take a look at learning to let go of the things we cannot control and find the balance between control and trusting God.
- Acts of the Apostles -Facilitator: Nick Rolf
(This class is a continuation, however is open for anyone wishing to attend.) In a world that is unsure of where to find truth or purpose, the book of Acts stands apart. It reveals God's plan for global redemption, his purpose for our lives, and the power he has given us to accomplish his mission. Join pastor Louie Giglio as he walks through the story of the early church.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING-Take note there will be a congregational meeting immediately after the service on Sunday, April 14th.

Why Is It Important To Vote on April 2nd?

The governance of our country, state, and communities is regulated by elected officials. We significantly influence how our land is governed with our vote; therefore, it is imperative that we vote wisely, seeking to honor God to the best of our ability. Here are topics to consider and look for as you decide how to cast your vote. For more information go to: <https://wifamilycouncil.org/election-central>

- ❖ Preserve religious freedom

A Christian's first duty is to God. It then follows, as a matter of course, that it is his duty to carry his Christian code of morals to the polls and vote them. – Mark Twain
